Risk-Adjusted Return (Sharpe Ratio), Standard Deviation and return calculations for the Composite and indices provided by Zephyr Style Advisor. The Composite has been compared to various peer groups defined by investment style. The Composite is an all market capitalization value investment style. The Morningstar Large Value Peer Group, Mid Cap Value Group and the Lipper Multi-Cap Value Funds Peer Group have been presented as investment strategies with similar investment styles. For peer group comparisons all Returns, Standard Deviation and Sharpe Ratio calculations, including those of the Composite were calculated by Zephyr Style Advisor based upon strategies with monthly return data from December 2008 to present. Zephyr reports on month end returns only. For the purposes of peer group comparisons Since Inception returns are shown beginning 11/30/2008. The Sharpe Ratio is a calculation of a product's risk-adjusted performance over time. The Ratio is calculated by taking a product's annualized excess return over a risk-free rate (The Firm uses the Citigroup month Treasury Bill as the risk-free rate) and dividing by its annualized standard deviation calculated using monthly returns.

Fees and Returns:

Nuance is an investment adviser registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The firm maintains a complete list and description of composites, which is available upon request. The U.S. Dollar is the currency used to express performance returns and assets. Performance results are presented both net and gross of management fees and include the reinvestment of income. Both gross and net of fee returns are reduced by trading expenses. Net of fee returns are reduced by Actual investment advisory fees and other expenses that may be incurred in the management of the account. The full fee schedule for all Nuance products is available upon request. It should be noted that the collection of fees produces a compounding effect on the total rate of return net of management fees. Nuance Concentrated Value charges .95% for clients with assets under $25 million, .90% for clients with assets under management between $25-50 million, .85% for clients with assets under management between $50-75 million, .80% for clients with assets under management between $75-$100 million, and .75% for clients with assets greater than $100 million. Definition of the Firm

The definition of the firm is the foundation for firm-wide compliance and creates defined boundaries for determining the assets of the firm. In this instance, the firm is defined as Nuance Investments, LLC (Nuance), a majority owned subsidiary of Montage Investments, LLC ("Montage"). Montage is a wholly owned subsidiary of Bicknell Family Holding Company. Nuance founded on November 1, 2008, was formed on the belief that the ability to outperform the broad stock market is predicated on a consistent and disciplined value investing approach. The Investment Management Team selects securities for the Nuance investment portfolio's by using an extensive quantitative screening and fundamental research process that identifies leading businesses selling at a discount to fair value and that have the potential to generate above-average rates of returns over time. The Investment Management Team seeks to identify companies across a range of industries and market sectors that have leading and sustainable market share positions, above-average financial strength, and are trading at a discount to their internal view of intrinsic value. The Investment Management Team may sell an investment when it believes it has surpassed its intrinsic value by applying the screening process described above, for purposes of portfolio construction or risk management, or when a more attractive investment opportunity becomes available. The total firm assets will be defined as all discretionary and non-discretionary assets under management within Nuance. This includes primary investment management accounts, sub-advisory investment management accounts and wrap accounts as well as both fee-paying and non-fee paying assets.

Strategy: Our Core offerings are the Nuance Mid Cap Value Strategy, the Nuance Concentrated Value Strategy and the Nuance Concentrated Value Long-Short Strategy. The Nuance Concentrated Value Composite consists of separately managed accounts (portfolios) in the Concentrated Value strategy. The composite was created on November 13, 2008. Nuance Concentrated Value seeks to achieve long-term capital appreciation by investing primarily in equity securities (including common stocks, preferred stocks and convertible securities) of companies organized in the United States that the Investment Management Team believes are high quality, though temporarily out of favor. The Investment Management Team will invest primarily in the equity securities of U.S. companies; however the portfolio may invest up to 25% of its assets in equity securities of foreign companies classified as "developed" by MSCI. Nuance utilizes MSCI to classify its international holdings. The country classification of a company is generally determined by the company's country of incorporation and the primary listing of its securities. MSCI will classify a company in the country of incorporation if its securities have a primary listing in this country. In such cases where a company's securities have a primary listing outside of the country of incorporation, an additional analysis is performed to determine the company's country classification. Cash will generally not be greater than 25 percent of the market value of the portfolio. 50 percent of the portfolio assets will generally not have positions of greater than 5 percent. Each security position will generally not be greater than 15 percent of the market value of the portfolio. Each portfolio will not exceed a 25 percent weighting in one industry as defined by Global Industry Classification Standards (GICS®). A typical portfolio will hold between 15 and 35 securities. There is no minimum separate account asset level necessary for inclusion in the composite.

Benchmark: For comparison purposes, the composite is measured against Russell 3000® Value Index as a primary index. The Russell 3000® Value Index measures the performance of the broad value segment of the U.S. equity universe. It includes those Russell 3000 companies with lower price-to-book ratios and lower forecasted growth values. The Russell 3000® Value Index is constructed to provide a comprehensive, unbiased, and stable barometer of the broad value market. The Index is completely reconstituted annually to ensure new and growing equities are included and that the represented companies continue to reflect value characteristics. Secondary index is the S&P 500 Index TR. It should be noted that the Russell Midcap® Value Index was considered the primary index until June 30, 2010. Beginning July 1, 2010 the primary index is considered the Russell 3000® Value Index. The change in index was due to further study surrounding the market for all-cap strategies and the appropriate index for these strategies.

Dispersion: Dispersion is calculated from gross of fee returns using an equal-weighted standard deviation methodology. Only those accounts included for the full calculation period are part of the dispersion calculation. The 3-year Ex-post annualized standard deviation value is calculated using 36 consecutive monthly gross of fee returns to the end calculation period. Prior to January 1, 2017 dispersion was calculated using an asset-weighted methodology. The calculation methodology was updated based on a new performance system dispersion calculation.

Nuance has adopted the following Significant Cash Flow Policy. An account will be removed from a composite if a client has given specific instructions that prevent full investment of the cash flow(s) in a timely manner (defined as 5 business days or greater), or if a single cash flow is equal or greater than 10 percent of the total account value based on the beginning of the month market value. If these circumstances exist, the account will be removed from the composite and added back to the composite on the first day of the following month. More information regarding Composite descriptions and policies for valuing portfolios, calculating performance, and preparing compliant presentations are available upon request by contacting client.services@nuanceinvestments.com or 816-743-7080.
